2005 Induction Dinner

Dinner chairman Frank McKinnon reported that 580 tickets for the 2005 Manitoba Hockey Hall of Fame induction dinner were sold at press time. He is shooting for a crowd of 700 on Oct. 21 at the Canad Inns Polo Park. Anyone interested should purchase tickets by Oct. 14. After that there is no guarantee of a seat. Tickets are $75 with a $40 charitable tax receipt. Call McKinnon at 253-6982 for tickets.

Cocktails are at 6 p.m. with dinner served at 7 p.m. Broadcaster Bob Picken will introduce the inductees and Lt. Gov. John Harvard will assist with the presentations. There will be no guest speaker. Moose Jackson and Bill Pounder will provide musical interludes.

Cop Now Cop in New Orleans

Former CBC announcer Lionel Moore reports that his son Dean has gone from being a policeman in minor league hockey to being a real policeman in, of all places, New Orleans. The hard-nosed Moore, a graduate of Notre Dame College in Wilcox, Sask., played in Knoxville, Charlotte and New Orleans and briefly with the Manitoba Moose before serving as Director of Player Liaison for the ECHL. Last winter he returned to New Orleans and joined the police department. In the thick of Hurricane Katrina, he has been shot at and his captain was one of the officers who committed suicide.

"Dean is now homeless, himself. He has only seen his pregnant wife and two children once in a month," Lionel said. They were evacuated to Houston. His parents lost track of him for 11 days but knew he was okay when they were informed that Christie Blatchford had written a front page story on Dean in The Globe and Mail.

Manitoba Hockey Hall of Fame To Honour 16 Individuals and Four Teams in 2005

The Manitoba Hockey Hall of Fame will induct nine players, three builders, two officials, one member of the media and its first historian on Oct. 21 at the Canad Inns Polo Park in Winnipeg.

Jordy Douglas, Dean Evason, Randy Gilhen, Grant Ledyard, Steve Patrick and Cliff Pennington will enter the HOF in the regular players category and the late Bill Heindl Sr. will be inducted as a veteran player. The special Winnipeg Jets category will welcome its final two members, Dale Hawerchuk and Thomas Steen. (See page 2 for bios).

Grant Ledyard

The three builders are Ralph Borger and Ray Frost of Winnipeg and Jim Mann of Brandon. Called "the ultimate fundraiser," Borger operated the St. Boniface junior Saints for 28 years and was named a life member of Hockey Manitoba this year. Frost spent 40 years as a coach and manager in minor and junior hockey and managed Winnipeg Rangers to three MJHL titles. A member of the Brandon University Hockey HOF, Mann coached the Bobcats for seven years during a career that spanned more than 35 years.

Joe Vinet, who refereed from the 1950s to the '70s, and Earl Ormshaw, who was been involved for 40 years both on and off the ice, will be honoured as officials. The late Dallis (Knobby) Beck will join his fellow scribes in the media section and researcher/writer Ed Sweeney will be inducted as a hockey historian.

Four championship teams also will be saluted at the induction dinner. The Winnipeg Monarchs teams that won the Memorial Cup emblematic of Canadian junior hockey supremacy in 1934-35, 1936-37 and 1945-46 and the 1973-74 Selkirk Steelers squad that captured the national junior A title will receive official recognition by the HOF for their accomplishments.

The Manitoba Hockey Hall of Fame inducted its first members in 1985 and held annual induction ceremonies every year until 1993 with the exception of 1991. Since 1995, the new members have been welcomed to the HOF every second year.

Mini-Bios of the 2005 Hall of Fame Players

Jordy Douglas, LW: Winnipegger who played junior for Flin Flon of the WCJHL. Drafted by Toronto of the NHL, but signed and played with New England Whalers in final WHA season followed by 268 NHL games with Hartford, Minnesota and the Winnipeg Jets.

Dean Evason, C: Flin Flon native who played junior with Spokane and Kamloops of the WHL and for Canada's national junior team. Drafted by Washington in 1982 and played more than 880 NHL games with five teams and for Canada's national team.

Randy Gilhen, C: Played junior for Saskatoon and Winnipeg of the WHL. Played with seven NHL teams including the Winnipeg Jets and won the Stanley Cup with the Pittsburgh Penguins in 1990-91. Finished career with the Manitoba Moose.

Bill Heindl Sr, D: One of the few Manitobans to play for two Canadian junior championship teams winning the Memorial Cup with the 1940-41 Winnipeg Rangers and 1941-42 Portage Terriers. Played more than 500 senior and minor pro games.

Grant Ledyard, D: Played in the MJHL with the Fort Garry Blues. After being named the CHL's most improved defenceman in 1984, signed as a free agent by the New York Rangers and played 1028 games over 18 years in the NHL with nine teams.

Steve Patrick, RW: Winnipeg native who played for Brandon of the WHL. Drafted in the 1st round by Buffalo Sabres of the NHL and went on to play with the Rochester of the AHL and 250 NHL games with the Sabres, New York Rangers and Quebec.

Cliff Pennington, C: Played junior with St. Boniface and Flin Flon and for Canada's silver medallists in the 1960 Olympics while still junior age. Played 101 NHL games with Montreal and Boston during his 14-year pro career.

Players in Special Winnipeg Jets Category

Dale Hawerchuk, C: Member of the Hockey Hall of Fame in Toronto. Selected number 1 overall by Winnipeg in the 1981 NHL draft and named NHL rookie of the year in 1981-82. Scored 930 pts during his nine seasons with the Jets.

Thomas Steen, C: A world junior all-star with Sweden who was drafted by the Winnipeg Jets in 1979. Joined the team in 1981 and played his entire 14-year NHL career in Winnipeg. Tallied 296 goals and 553 assists in 950 games.

Name-Dropping by Toast and Coffee

Editors Ted and Kent were labelled Toast and Coffee when they wrote a sports column for the Winnipeg Sun under that title from 1997 to 2001. They now write the Kent and Dutch on Sports column for The Prime Times newspaper.

The Manitoba Sports Hall of Fame announced its 2005 induction class on Sept. 13. Going into the provincial shrine from the hockey world on Nov. 5 at the Canad Inns Polo Park will be Grant Ledyard, Don MacKenzie and the three Winnipeg Jets teams that won WHA championships in 1976, 1978 and 1979. Ledyard has promised HOF officials that he will travel from his home in Clarence, NY for his induction into the Hockey HOF on Oct. 21 and for the Sports HOF dinner on Nov. 5. Former MAHA president MacKenzie is being inducted as a builder for his contributions to sport that included presidency of the Manitoba Sports Federation and the 1999 Pan Am Games Host Society...Can it be 26 years since Toast&Coffee worked on the minor officials and statistics committee at the 1979 Air Canada Cup Midget Hockey Championship that MacKenzie chaired?...Frank McKinnon reported that the Rick Blight memorial golf tournament and auction in Carman raised more than $24,000 for charity. The Foundation donated $200 to the cause...HOF member Ab McDonald travelled to Chicago to play in the Black Hawks Alumni Association annual charity golf tournament on Aug. 29. Ab's centre Stan Mikita also played in the event that raises scholarship funds for high school players in Illinois... Former St. Boniface Mohawks centre Wayne Wiste had a busy summer. The Daniel McIntyre teacher traveled to Denver where he hooked up with several of his University of Denver teammates from the mid-1960s. After a few skates, they were off to Santa Rosa, Cal. to play in the 60+ division of the Snoopy's Senior World Hockey Tournament. A tournament in Edmonton was next on the itinerary for the Pioneers alumni. Wayne's brother Jim, who played for Chicago in the WHA and NHL, came up from Colorado to coach the team. The Denver squad reached the finals of the 50+ division, but lost to a team from Edmonton. Wiste's team was understaffed for the final so they called for help and former Jet Rich Preston, another Pioneer, came up from Calgary. The Flames assistant coach scored twice, but it wasn't enough against the champions who had 81 players try out for the team...Individuals from the hockey world were prominent when the Manitoba Softball Hall of Fame held its 2005 induction on May 7 in Winnipeg and the Manitoba Baseball shrine inducted its 2005 class on June 4 in Morden. Hockey HOF member and British Hockey League star Chick Zamick was inducted into the Softball HOF with the 1950-1954 Northern Hotel/Ukrainian Legion Branch 141 senior men's teams. Tod Thurston, who also played in Britain, went in as a coach of the 1948-50 Morden Whiz-Bangs girls. Vic Pidhirny, former Portage Terriers and 2000 World Junior Hockey Championship board member, was inducted as an individual. Toast&Coffee served as duelling MCs...In Morden, hall-of-famers Bob Kabel and Bill Murray were inducted with the 1958-63 Dauphin Redbirds. The late Red Atkin of Carberry, who was prominent as a player and official in hockey as well as baseball, was inducted as an individual. Several of the 1962-67 Pilot Mound Pilots also played hockey with Rod Collins perhaps the most recognizable name. The 1959-64 The Pas TeePees teams included a number of players from the intermediate Huskies. The late Claude (Cobra) Kozik and Ticky King along with Ron Cox anchored both teams and another important component was the late Jack Giles. He's the father of 1999 HOF inductee Curt Giles, who was born in the northern community. Huskies goalie Ron Chalmers, who was the MAHA president from 1976 through 1979, ex-Winnipeg Monarch Hugh Turnbull and Edgar Rivalin, who helped U of M Bisons win the CIAU championship in 1965, also wore TeePees green. McKinnon, Coffee and HOF member Gladwyn Scott were among the presenters and Gladwyn received a special award in recognition of his contributions to the baseball hall.

Don Rope, who was a member of the Winnipeg Monarchs in 1946-47, has celebrated his 75th birthday in Cambridge, Ont. Rope, a retired school teacher, played senior hockey in Ontario with Kitchener-Waterloo Dutchmen and helped Canada won bronze in the 1956 Winter Olympics and silver in 1960.

It's old news, but the Stonewall Old Buffaloes won the 65-and-over division of the Pacific Western Hockey Tournament in April for the third straight year. When you see Foundation director Laurie Langrell, please ask him why the Buffaloes recruited players from Saskatchewan this year when there are so many "old" oldtimers in our province. One rookie was retired Winnipeg police sergeant Bob Essery, who in his early days as a cop played on a line in Red Lake with Ted Rock, another TeePee/Huskie from The Pas...Spotted ex-Winnipeg Monarch Billy Smyth gliding about at CanLan Ice Sports (Highlander to most people) in early September. Smyth, who skates better than most teenagers, plays Tuesdays with Langrell and Buffaloes teammate Murray Wilkie at River Heights with Ross Parke's group. He said he may add Fridays at Stonewall to his schedule and is a definite candidate for Victoria in the spring as he reaches the magic age in 2006... Rheostatics guitarist Dave Bidini did a reading and signed his new book, The Best Game You Can Name, at McNally Robinson Grant Park on Sept. 15. He told us that 2003 inductee Dennis McDonald was very helpful when he doing his research. The book includes comments from Jets alumni Joe Daley, Anders Hedberg, Tod Hartje, Mike Smith and Igor Kuperman, local journalists Bartley Kives and Chuck Molgat and Dan Diamond, an ex-Winnipegger who has published a long list of hockey books...Brett Bruneteau, the grandson of 1999 HOF inductee Ed Bruneteau, is a member of the US under-17 team. In other news from the Omaha area, the Omaha World-Herald reported that the "Godfather of hockey keeps skating." The paper was referring to 79-year-old Motto McLean, who ran his summer youth hockey camp for the 25th consecutive year. The camp is held at the arena that now bears his name. McLean, whose long pro career included a period with Bruneteau on the Omaha Knights, coached the Flin Flon junior Bombers in 1958-59 and played for the senior Bombers...Gus Bodnar passed away on Canada Day in Oshawa, He 's not a Manitoban, but he is attached to Bill Mosienko's NHL record of scoring three goals in 21 seconds. Bodnar drew assists on all three thereby establishing his own record. He also holds the record for the fastest goal at the start of his career. In October 1943, he scored 15 seconds into his first shift. He went on to win the Calder Trophy as the league's outstanding rookie that season...Manitoba Bisons coach Mike Sirant spent a week in September as a guest coach at the Nashville Predators camp. Sirant said it was an excellent experience and that he was treated very well. Nashville coach Barry Trotz, who once coached the Bisons, had an ulterior motive in mind when he extended the invitation. Sirant is experienced in coaching without a red line and with the new NHL rules allowing a "two-line" pass, Trotz wanted to pick his brains...Barry Thorndycraft, who passed away on Sept. 22, coached the freshman team at the University of North Dakota and then coached the varsity for five years starting with the 1959-60 season. His Sioux squad that included Manitobans George Chigol, Wayne Gurba, Jack Matheson and John Sutherland beat Denver 6-5 to win the NCAA championship in 1963. Greg Lacomy, Billy Staub and Jim Kenning played for the Pioneers. Thorndycraft also was an assistant to Bob May when UND took the title in 1959 with a 4-3 overtime win over Michigan State. Steve Thullner and Ralph Lyndon, who had a goal and assist in the victory, were on that team. His fans will be surprised to learn that Ralph was in the penalty box when Reg Morelli scored the winning goal in OT.

Foundation News

Development is continuing on the Foundation website that eventually will open the doors of the Manitoba Hockey Hall of Fame to the world. Hockey Manitoba and the Winnipeg Minor Hockey Association are gold-level sponsors and McDonalds Restaurants of Canada and Ice Kube Systems have signed on as silver sponsors. Support from Manitoba Culture, Heritage and Recreation has been received through a grant and access to bingos. The board is hoping to give guests a preview of the website at the HOF dinner on Oct. 21.

As for the physical hall in the MTS Centre, visitors can expect to see the bios of the 2005 induction class in place shortly after the dinner. The new team Wall of Champions will be erected soon. The Winnipeg Falcons exhibit that was unveiled by the Falcons Forever committee in April is across the corridor from the HOF displays.

If you haven't renewed your membership, please do so immediately. The board also wants members to provide referrals. Surely, most members could come up with at least a half dozen names of people who might be interested in joining the Foundation. Call director Len Morrow at 261-5366 with phone numbers or addresses. The annual fee is $15 and a lifetime membership can be purchased for $100. Payment should be made to the Manitoba Hockey Foundation and sent to the office.

For those of you wondering about the annual reunion that is usually held in the fall, the board decided not to hold it because of the proximity to the induction dinner. Plans are underway to hold a different type of Hockey Night in Manitoba event in the spring of 2006 when all the hockey snowbirds are back from Arizona, Florida and Texas.

Grey Cup pool tickets are now available from the directors. If you can't find one, director Gary Cribbs says to call 837-4159 for your "Lucky Chance."

Stanley Cup Visits MTS Centre

Chuck Lefley, Ab McDonald, Randy Gilhen and Bill Juzda all have their name on the Stanley Cup. Gilhen will be inducted into the Manitoba Hockey HOF on Oct. 21 while the other three are honoured members of the Hall.

Bill Juzda was pleased to sign the Maple Leafs sweater worn by Elsie Holigroski, who was first in line to see the Cup and collect autographs.

Chris Nicolson has been photographed with the Grey Cup and now she has one with the Stanley Cup.

Kelvin High Grad World Oldest Hockey Player?

Is John Burnosky at age 93 the world's oldest hockey player? Winnipegger Jim Burnosky says that his uncle John, who lives in Detroit, plays regularly for the Bruno's Dive Shop team sponsored by his son's dive and hockey shop. The team won gold in the 70+ recreational division at a 2004 National Senior Games Association competition in Minneapolis and Jim plans to travel to the Twin Cities next month to watch his uncle play. John is hoping to be officially recognized as the world's oldest hockey player by Guinness or Ripley's.

John was born in Winnipeg in 1911 and played for Kelvin High School championship teams in 1929-30 and 1930-31. He then moved to Detroit where he reportedly had a tryout with the Red Wings. You can read more about him on the Internet by searching Google or by going to the website brunosdiveshop.com/hockey.

Apparently the only problem John has being a 93-year-old hockey player is that he can't call up his peers to come out and play. They aren't around anymore.
